

Anita Sobe @ the IEEE Xtreme 24-hour programming competition

The IEEE Xtreme 24-hour programming competition took place on October 24, 2009!

Over 700 teams competed in this worldwide contest. Klagenfurt University was represented by Anita Sobe (ITEC), István Fehérvári (NES/Mobile Systems Group) and Bernhard Dieber (NES/Pervasive Computing Group). Their effort resulted in 25. place which is the upper 5% worldwide and a top-ten ranking in the IEEE region 08 (Europe, Middle East and Africa)!

IEEE XTREME
PROGRAMMING
COMPETITION 3.0

